THE FACULTY

"Please, Miss Hooker, may I have an early dismissal?" "Yes, sir, Mr. McCombs, but you see, it was like this . . ." "Mr. Sellars, where are the cuts for The Lariat? Who has the recorder this period? Will you see Mrs. Jones about Johnny's grades?" Sound familiar? All these and our other administrative problems at North Side are under the able direction of our principal and his two assistants.

ERNEST F. SELLARS
Principal

Without the aid and direction of the members of the North Side faculty, it would have been impossible for the staff to have produced this record of the school year. Therefore, we take this opportunity to thank each of them who has extended a helping hand to us in our endeavors.

During the football season, the seniors sponsored the sale of football ribbons, the proceeds of which were used for the different senior activities.

On January 16, the mid-term graduates had their Senior Day. The activities included a luncheon in the school lunchroom, an all-senior talent program in the auditorium, and a theater program. That evening Dorothy Daniels gave a party for the members of her class.

Baccalaureate services were at the Rosen Heights Baptist Church. Reverend Jesse Garrett presented the sermon. Commencement exercises were held in the school auditorium on January 27.

The outstanding event of the June graduating class, the senior dinner dance, was held at the Colonial Country Club on April 16. Ken Vaughan and his Melodiers played for the dance.

Senior Day for the June class was May 11. They also had a luncheon, program, and theater party.

Baccalaureate for the June grads will be held at Farrington Field together with graduates of all city high schools on May 23.

A picnic and swimming party for the senior class is planned for May 24 to be held at Berger's Lake.

Commencement exercises are to be at Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium on May 31.

Big Brass Band from Steerland

High stepping for the Steer band this year was under the care of band drum majors Wanda Harrison and Jacque Shelton, both of whom did a fancy job of baton twirling. Assisting them in giving color to the band performances were drum majorettes Wanda Marlett, Mary Katherine Gray, and Peggy Scott.

One of the busiest groups at North Side this year was the orchestra. Under the direction of Mrs. Birdie Julia Hodges they have entertained at numerous outside functions in addition to furnishing many entertaining assembly programs for the student body.

Included in the orchestra are Brown, Burns, Byas, Crone, Elliott, Fenichis, B. Foster, J. Foster, Hardegree, Harrison, Harward, Hauenfluck, Heilman, Horschler, Ireland, Johnson, Jordan, King, Lee, Lovelace, Mannen, Meyers, Moehr Nelson, Norman, Oehlschlager, Ponder, Porter, Scott, Sexton, Shelton, Shoemaker, Sutton, Ward, Wells, Wiley, Williams, Wiles.

Singing Strings

A group within a group, the string ensemble presents both chamber music and lighter songs—remember "Fiddle-Fiddle"? Ensemble members are Clemmie Burns, James Byas, John Lovelace, Laura Norman, Mildred Paschall, and John Wiley.

MIXED GLEE CLUB members have afforded both the students and friends of North Side with many pleasant hours of listening in the school year of 1947-48.

Included in this singing group are Adams, Arnold, Baker, Branam, Brooks, Bryant, Collins, Conner, Cox, Crowley, Dennis, Dilling, Dockery, Dwinell, Ermis, Flenniken, Fowler, French, Gaulden, Goolsby, Harris, Henry, Hickman, Halliday, Horne, Husbenet, Hughes, Hull, Hurley, Hutchman, A. Jones, B. Jones, Johnston, Kahler, C. King, M. COMPANY ATTENTION!

Plenty of activities, both military and social, have kept the North Side R.O.T.C. busy this year. Outstanding events included the Sponsors' Rifle Team match in which Major Patsy Coffman placed second in individual scoring and an all-city match held at Carswell Field in March where the Rifle Team placed second. Still to come as The Lasso went to press were the All City Formal, Federal Inspection, and Platoon Competition.

SPUR CLUB

SPUR CLUB OFFICERS find working with Miss Hooker and Mr. McCombs, organization sponsors, a real pleasure. Seated, Miss Hooker, Mr. McCombs, and Jean Clark, secretary. Standing, Cleon Flanagan, president, Harry Byars, vice-president, Julius Bruner, sergeant-at-arms.

The Spur Club was organized at North Side High School in the spring of 1947 for the purpose of recognizing high scholarship and providing North Side with a service organization. The membership consists of the top ranking ten per cent of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The bronze spurs are awarded to one year members, silver spurs to the two year members, and the golden spurs to those belonging to the organization for three years. The main project of the club this year was the publication of a student handbook.

BEFORE the crowd caught on to the fact that favorites were really being chosen March 24, ballots came in slowly to pick the outstanding boy and girl from each of the three classes.

AFTER the votes began coming in, ballot box tenders had a hard time keeping up with all those who crowded around. In an unusually heavy vote, the students shown on the following pages came forward with a large majority, rating as leaders by way of personality, popularity, and service to North Side.

FOOTBALL in 1947

Coach Snow started the 1947 season with nine returning lettermen from his quarter-finalists team of '46 to bolster chances for another district champion. When the first game was played the starting line-up read George and Cornelius at ends, Hooper and Johnson manning the tackles, Wilson and Davis holding down guard positions, and Captain James Brewer at center. The backfield was composed of Mieth, Lary, Bumgarner, and Dear.

Injuries hurt deeply and quickly as the Herd lost Johnson, Bumgarner, Mieth, Lary, before four games had been completed. Poly upset the dope bucket by springing their surprise, Odessa's defending state champs did the expected by turning back the Longhorns in their first contest of the year, and Gladewater and Arlington Heights won hard-fought battles from the Hill-toppers to put the only mars on their season's record.

For their best played game of the year the players picked the Lubbock fray. They simply couldn't do anything wrong in this one and won handily. Perhaps the hardest fought one was when Heights won the district scramble in as exciting a game as one could hope to see. However, all's well that ends well and the Steers were happy as they defeated arch-rival Paschal in the Thanksgiving grudge fight to end the year of football.

Mieth, B. Wilson, Dear, Lary, Bumgarner, K. Wilson, Lowe, Ayala, Burns, Sellers, Ralls, Mahaffey, Leavell. Third Row: Coach Snow, Auton, Felker, Cornelius, Harris, Johnson, Hooper, Riedel, Graves, Davis, Brewer, and Coach Morris.

Kneeling: Vallie Linn Holland, Jeannine Rountree, Esta Cooper, and Mary Stewart. Standing: Kenneth White, head yell leader, Grady Hausenfluck, Roy Stewart, and Lee Tannahill.

YELL LEADERS

Much credit is due to this year's yell leaders who played an important part in leading the 1947 football team to victories. Under the guidance of their sponsor, Miss Frances Schober, they served the student body and team, conducting pep rallies twice a week and building up student body spirit with their many peppy and enthusiastic yells and songs. Following the sports calendar, the yell leaders also appeared at the basketball games to lead yells and songs.

Many socials and a trip to Gladewater were enjoyed by the group, including the annual Pep Prom, an all-city dance given in honor of all yell leaders in District 7AA.

HERD HOOPSTERS

Distinction of having the tallest team in the district went to Coach Ted Koonce and his hoopsters for the 1947-48 season. They won eight straight games in preliminary contests before the district opener and took second place trophy in the Dallas invitation tournament.

Captain of the team Charles Johnson, dependables Ronnie McBee, James Brewer, Ray Lowe, and all-district Darrow Hooper were the starting five for the Kooncemen. Add to that group Yale Lary and Pat Holmes, and you have the seven lettermen as announced at the end of the season.

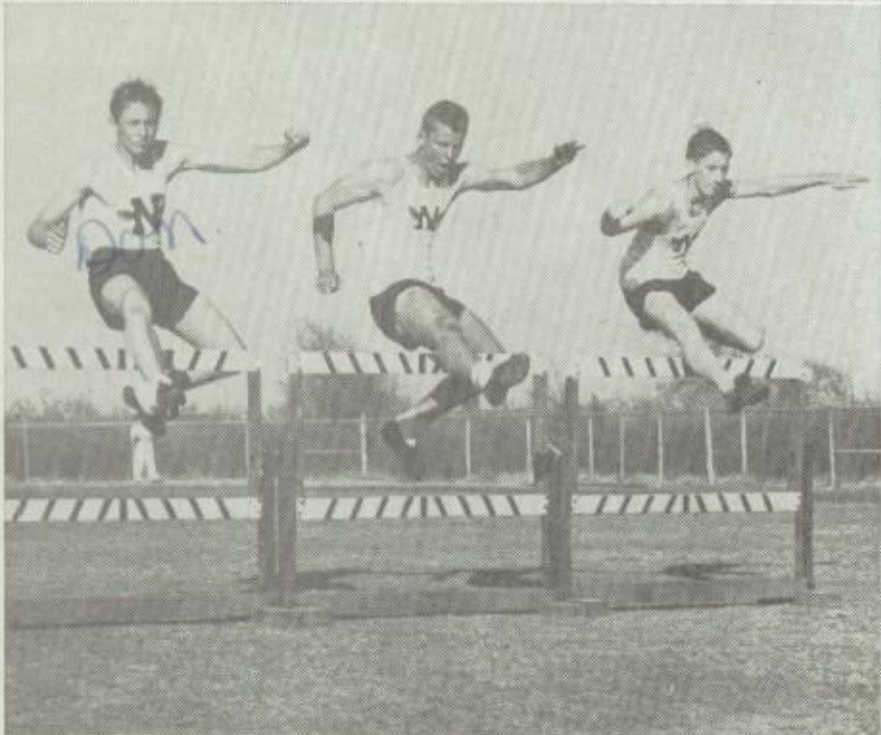

Although beaten out in the first round of the double round-robin play, the Steers tied Poly for the second half title which necessitated a play-off. This tilt was scheduled for the Recreation gym and saw the Herd fight a game but losing battle to mark finish to this, the most exciting road traveled by Steer roundballers in a long time.

HIGHLIGHTS of the basketball season pass in review. 1. Team captain, Charles Johnson, reaches for a high one while McBee and Hooper just keep hoping. 2. A case of arrested motion while Johnson, Hooper, and Lowe live through a tense moment in the play-off game with Poly. 3. Look out, McBee, you're going to run over that boy!

TRACK

Record-breaking Darrow Hooper, ace shot putter and discus hurler, led the Steer trackmen through the early part of their 1948 season, cracking records in both events in nearly every meet he attended. He was closely followed by teammate James Brewer in the same two events.

Coach L. B. Morris and his thinly clad participants participated in such early meets as Laredo's Border Olympics, Fort Worth's Southwestern Recreation Track and Field Meet, Brownwood's Bluebonnet Relays, and the Texas Relays held annually at Austin.

At the time The Lasso went to press, the team still had Jacksonville's Tomato Bowl, their own district track meet, and

1. Martin clears a high one. 2. Over the top go cousins Ponder, George, and Ponder. 3. Mile relay or one-legged race? 4. Squadmen smile for the birdie—all except Bumgarner, that is. Ten lettermen were back for the season.

STARS

the Big City state track meet, held this year in Dallas, to attend.

Miler Charles A. Davis was early elected captain to lead the following track men through the 1948 season: Barton, Blessing, Brewer, Bryant, Bumgarner, Camp, Chowning, Cook, Cowan, Crone, Crow, Crowley, Cunningham, C. A. Davis, C. H. Davis, Davenport, Dunaway, Fitzhugh, Gardener, George, Haddix, Haley, Hallum, Hooper, Jennings, Johnson, Jordan, Kerlee, Korolevich, Lockett, Lowe, Luker, Malone, Martin, McCain, Montgomery, Moore, Morris, Myres, Naugle, Nored, Norman, Perales, D. Ponder, J. Ponder, P. Ponder, T. Ponder, Quillin, Roach, Teasley, Thatch, Utley, Vann, Whisenant, Wiley, B. Wilson, D. Wilson, Woody, Yearly.

1. George and Kerlee fight for the post. 2. Brewer and Davis watch Hooper demonstrate his record-breaking form. 3. Sprint relayers pass the baton. 4. Johnson throws the discus while Hooper watches. 5. Brewer performs with the shot. 6. Captain Charles Davis practices for the mile.

BOWS AND ARROWS keep these gals busy in archery. Seated: Roberts, Odell, L. Neal, Oliveto, Newsome, Reeves, Burns, Glidewell, Finley. Standing: M. Neal, Long, Baker, Rattan, Poindexter, Mock, and Milford. Joyce Odell won first place in archery at the play day at Carter-Riverside in April.

GIRLS PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical education is the pause in the school day that refreshes and relaxes the students. In addition, it develops physical fitness, socially desirable habits, and an attitude of sportsmanship that contributes to the aims of immediate education and later life.

Girls' physical education at North Side includes volleyball, basketball, softball, and dancing. Intra-class tournaments in these sports keep alive the spirit of competition.

Reading counter-clockwise: 1. Mrs. Millsap and her winning basketball team pose. 2. Softball takes over with the advent of spring. 3. The championship volleyball team, coached by Mrs. Ina Davies, pose. 4. Shame on you, Mrs. Millsap! Musn't point!

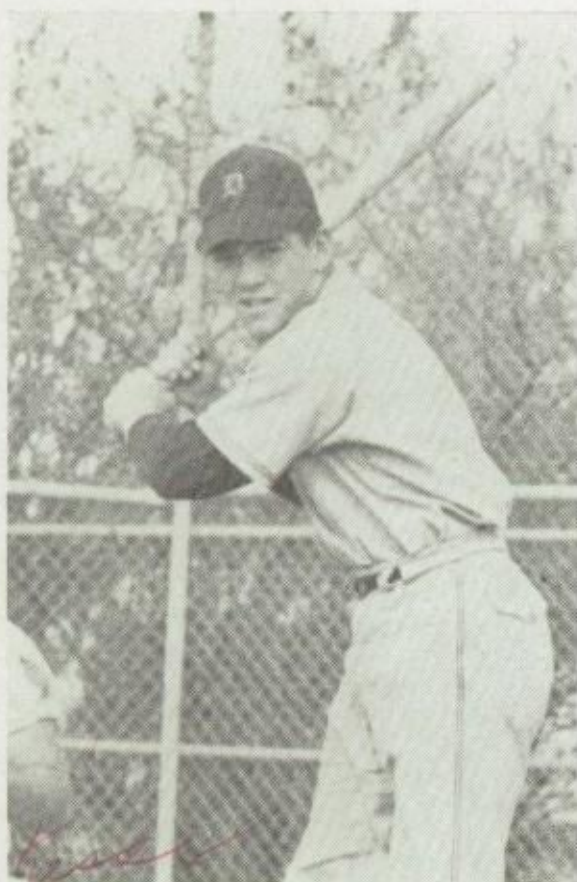

BASEBALL SQUADMEN number over fifty this year, the largest group ever out. Included are Baxter, Becan, Boaz, Bridges, Bruner, Buckalew, Buster, Carroll, Carter, Chapman, Collier, Cremer, Crowley, mgr., Dear, Foster, Fowler, Friedel, Graves, Helm, Hull, Husbenet, B. King, Bob King, H. King, Kirkham, Lary, Laughlin, Lewis, Lively, Miller, B. Moore, L. Moore, Muffett, Mulholland, Nelson, Peters, Rice, Roberts, Roe, Shen, Strittmatter, Stewart, Welborn, B. Wilson, K. Kilson, Wommack, and Yates.

BATTER UP!

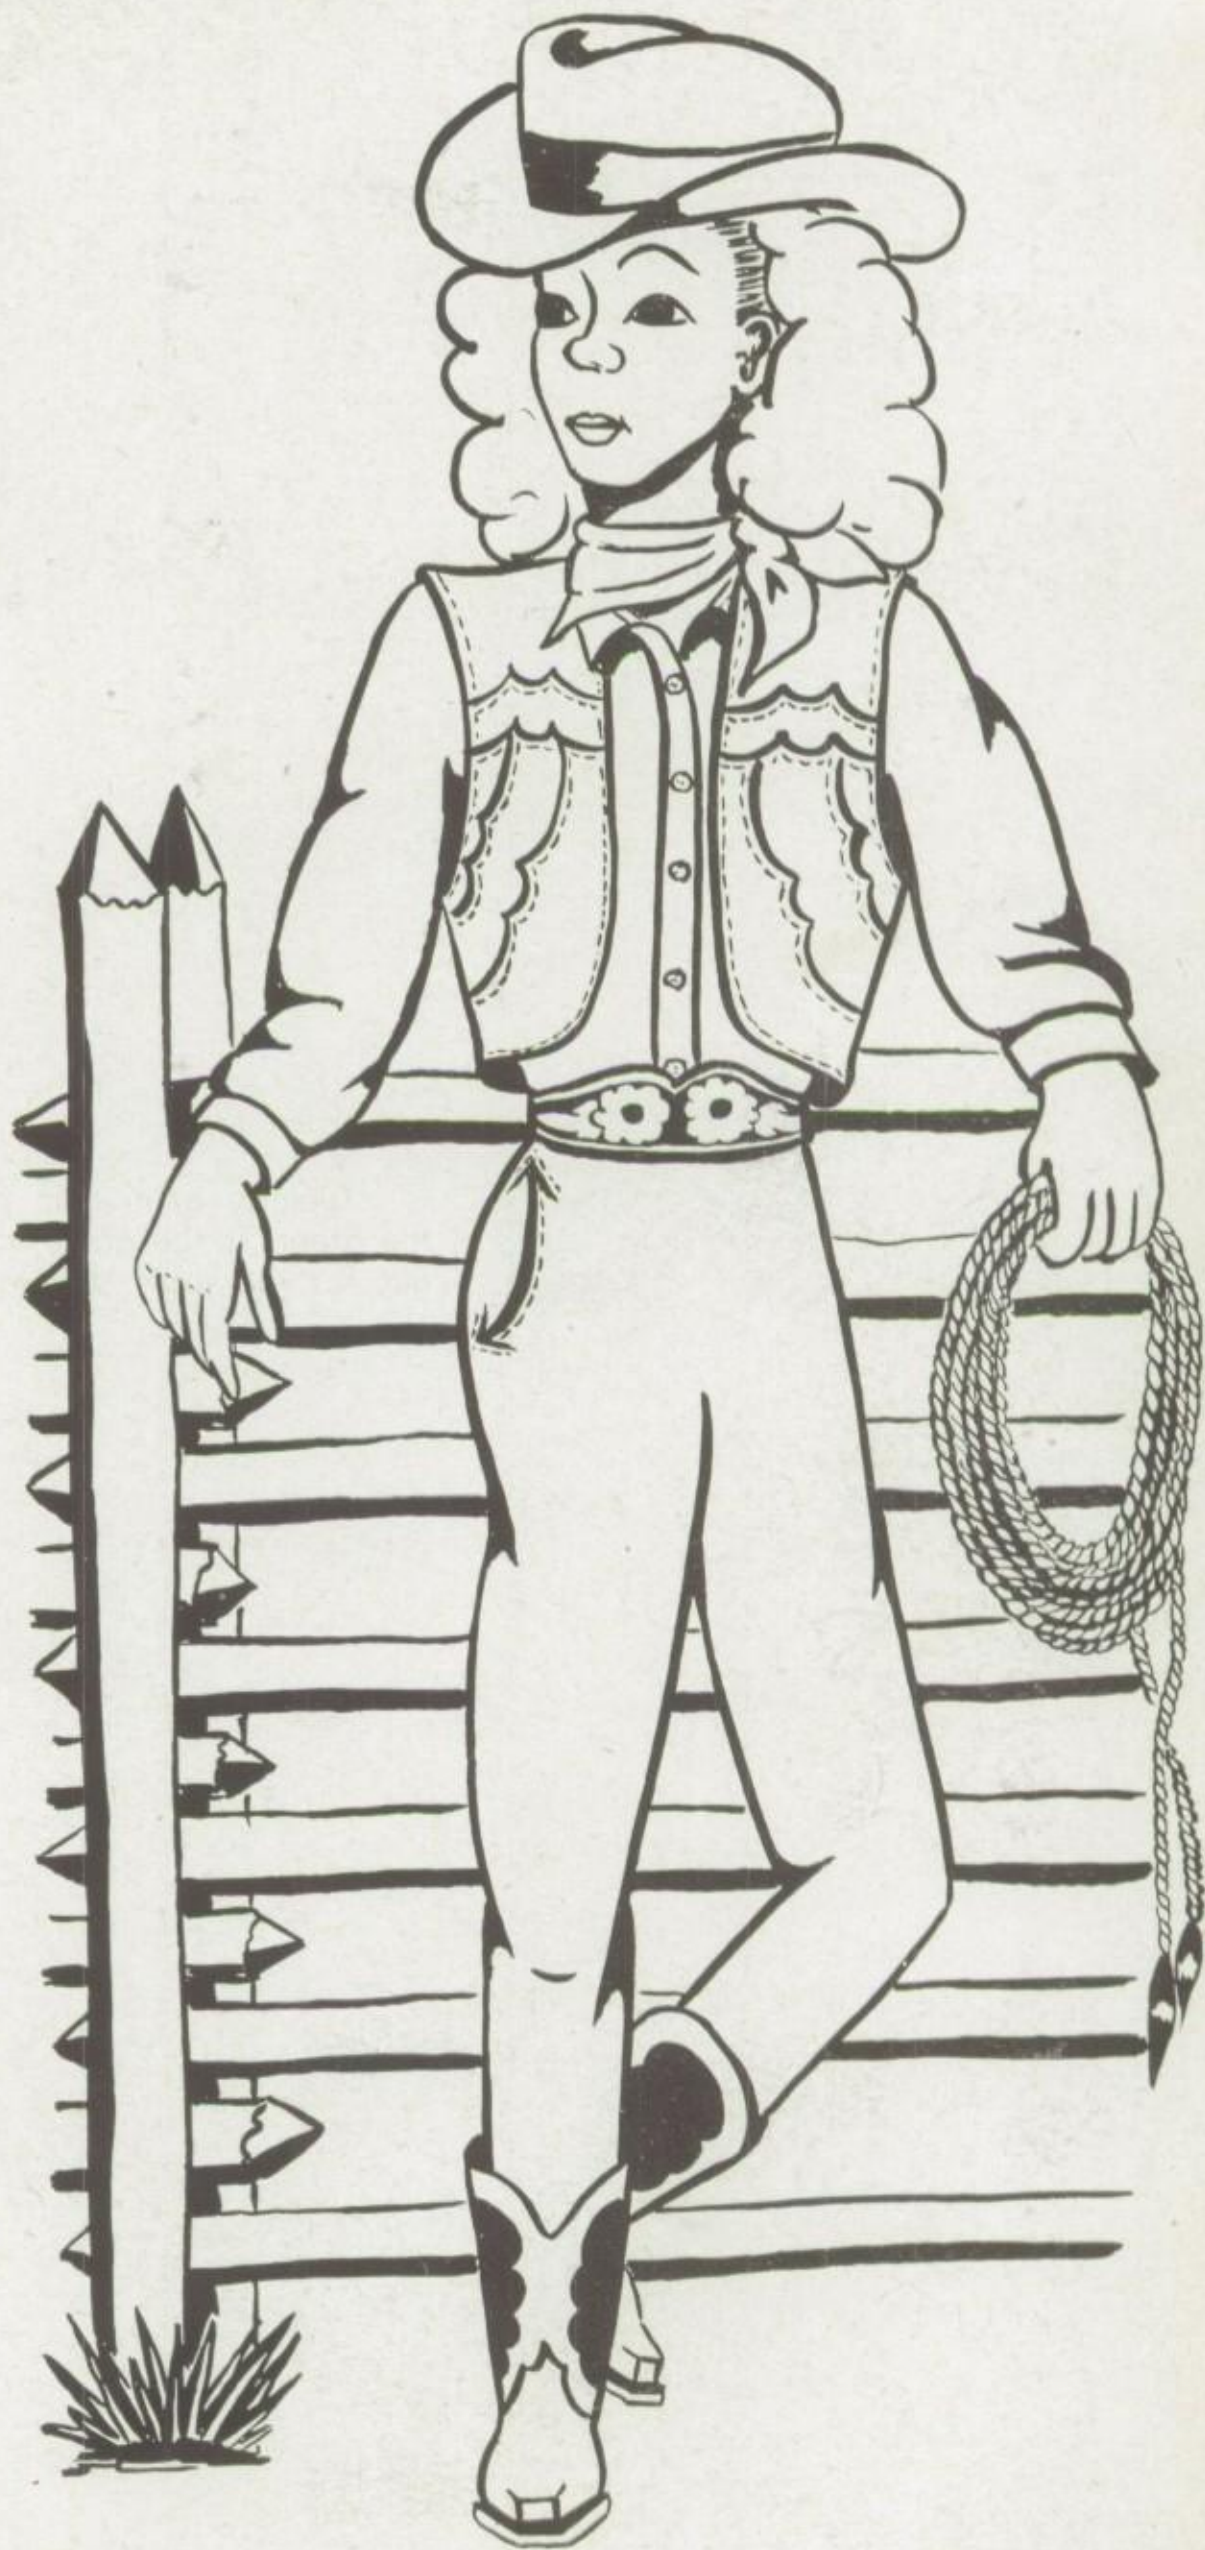

Quickly gaining in popularity here at the wind-swept home of the Steers is the game of baseball. Approximately fifty boys turned out for the sport this year, and many good prospects were turned up by the wily hardball mentor, Johnny "Pappy" Stovall.

Undoubtedly the hardest-hitting team in the district and the one with the most returning numeral winners, twelve, the Herd had a good team. Making up the infield were Yates, Lary, Carroll, and King. In the outer garden, the alternating boys were Becan, Dear, Wilson, and Graves. Helm spent time both in the infield and outfield, while Mulholland and Muffett handled pitching chores. Catching and sparking the nine was Capt. Strittmatter.

ACTION is the keynote of this year's baseball squad. Reading counter-clockwise: 1. Captain Billy "Kisser" Strittmatter shows he can bat as well as catch. 2. First baseman Bobby Yates gets one! 3. How not to slide in, illustrated by Billy Muffett with Don Carroll doing the tagging.

FESTIVE

HER MAJESTY, QUEEN BOBBIE SUE OF THE HOUSE OF DUNAGAN reigned over the Homecoming activities this year as North Side's first Queen of the Range. Nominated by the football A team and elected by secret ballot, Queen Bobbie Sue was attended by runners-up and duchesses, Kathleen Welborn and Loretta Markum, shown at the left and right, respectively.

In September the speech classes worked on one-act plays. The best one, "Curse You, Jack Dalton," was given in assembly. These one-act plays served as a drama clinic to recognize natural talent and type-cast the rest. Plays also bring out such qualities as cooperation, punctuality, character development, dependability, and good sportsmanship.

Two full length plays were presented, "No Soap," on January 21, and "Take Off Those Whiskers" on February 11.

Two radio programs were given, "The Necklace" and "Birth of Silent Night" with 95 music department students.

All speech classes recorded their voices on wire and discs which will be played back to them in May to compare with recent recordings and to note improvement.

Three spring plays were given, "Introducing Susan" on April 21, "Dora Dean" on April 27, and "They Did Away With Uncle" on May 5.

Don't you dare! Speech director Mrs. Snow Weatherred turns coy for the photographer in an unexpected candid photograph.

THE SPEECH ARTS

Latryl and Margaret express horror while Ted just expresses. Don't be nosey, Ray, love is love. The Christmas radio cast rehearse. Horror again. This time it's Lou Ellen. Center of attraction is Sue Cleveland, but who's the body? We don't know either. Aw, come on, Marcie Jo, you were young once!

At Christmas time, the speech department prepared and presented a special radio play. Sound effects were many and varied and required everything from records to brooms.

George Blazi gets the worst of the argument in this shot from one of the classroom productions of the speech department.

Twentieth Century students go back several centuries for the costumes worn in "No Soap," one of the two senior plays produced in the fall semester. Also given as a senior play then was the mystery "Take Off Those Whiskers."

Melodrama in all its dray-ma was the order of the day in "Curse You, Jack Dalton," one-act play produced early in the fall semester.

SQUARE DANCERS at North Side include Barton Boling, president; Cleon Flanagan, vice-president; Sue Cleveland, secretary, and Moore, Poindexter, Johnson, Hill, Watson, Pahl, Horne, Sladovnik, Wallace, Crowley, Switzer, Rogers, Thomas, Little, Dilling, Hall, King, Harrison, Nelson, Shelton, Schober, Woodard, Gray, and McCullar. Sponsors are Mrs. Winnie Addington, and Mr. L. L. McCombs.

NORTH SIDE HEALTH is under the care of Mrs. Jessie Ericson, school nurse. Assisting Mrs. Ericson in taking Ann Fincher's measurements is Wanda Himes, student assistant.

FOOD FOR THE HERD is prepared and served at North Side by Mrs. Frankie Casey and her able staff of assistants, who specialize in tasty, attractive, and wholesome lunches.

KEEPING IT GOING is the job of this quartet of North Siders. Custodians W. G. Dav, third floor; Hugh Estill, chief custodian; Sebred W. Powell, second floor, and Jesse H. Driskill, first floor, keep North Side the invitingly beautiful place that it is, always ready to lend a helping hand when called upon.

ASSISTING in the job of keeping North Side attractive are the two smiling maids, Odessa Thomas and Mrs. Ethel Payne.
